

Online Training Series
“The diversity of learners”
The special session

“We want to learn more !
Universal Design for Learning(UDL)”

25, August (Thursday),19:00-20:10 (Mexico City time, UTC-5)

The 1st session titled “Universal Design for Learning(UDL):Introduction”held in May was very well received. Since many people requested a sequel, we consulted with Mr. Kawamata, and decided to conduct a “special session”.

Participants are invited to share what they have done in their classes, what they have thought about their classes, and ideas that they have not yet implemented but would like to try since the 1st session. Let’s also ask Mr. Kawamata about any question you may have in practicing UDL.

For those who did not participate in the 1st session, a video of the session is available. Please watch it and apply for the special session. https://youtu.be/LJV-K05Cp_0

We are looking forward to seeing you there.
